RES IPSA

SPRING / SUMMER 2026

A woman with dark skin and her hair in a long braid stands on the edge of a light-colored concrete rooftop. She is wearing a long, white, button-down kaftan with thin vertical stripes. Her right arm is raised, with her hand open and fingers slightly curled, as if reaching towards the sky. She is looking off to the side, away from the camera. The background is a bright blue sky with scattered white clouds. The lighting suggests it's daytime, with shadows cast on the rooftop.

Our Brand is Travel

More than just a destination, travel is a way of life—it's the essence of everything we create. Founded by two globally-minded lawyers, Res Ipsa was born from a shared passion for culture, craftsmanship, and thoughtful design. What began with handmade ties has evolved into a global brand that embraces exploration, creativity, and sustainable practices.

We hand-weave our own fabrics, repurpose unique textiles, and craft products that carry the spirit of the places they come from and the people who create them. Each piece tells a story—rooted in intention and designed to endure. We love the people who wear our work. The pieces they choose are more than accessories—they're reflections of identity, expressions of soul, and windows into the parts of themselves they want to share with the world.

At Res Ipsa, we prioritize authenticity and slow, mindful production over fast, disposable trends. Our work embodies a quiet luxury, created for those who value craftsmanship and move through the world with purpose, confidence, and style.

Craftsmanship

Each garment begins with a feeling—of texture, weight, intention. Our commitment to craftsmanship, sustainability, and slow fashion comes through in every detail. Everything is made in-house, by hand, using custom-woven textiles, delicate crochet techniques, and thoughtfully repurposed materials.

The fabrics themselves are a labor of love: designed in-house and handwoven in small, precise batches—about three meters per day. This slow, intentional process ensures exceptional quality, rich texture, and depth you can feel. No excess. No shortcuts.

The result is a collection that's tactile, elevated, and deeply personal. Meant to be worn, lived in, and treasured—unlike anything you've seen or felt before.
